CASE NO. 1:13-CR-121

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION ON DEFENDANT'S COMPETENCY TO STAND TRIAL

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and the Local Rules for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, this criminal proceeding is before the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge upon referral from the District Court. The Court now enters its recommendation that the District Court find the defendant, Zachary Joel Jowett, competent to proceed.

A. Procedural Background and the Forensic Psychologist's Report

On December 23, 2013, pursuant to the motion of counsel, the undersigned entered an order directing the mental examination of the defendant to determine his competency to stand trial (doc. #14). In that order, the Court directed that the defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for placement in a suitable facility for an examination by a psychiatrist or psychologist to determine whether, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241, he is suffering from a mental disease or defect rendering him mentally incompetent to the extent he is unable to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to assist properly in his defense.<sup>1</sup>

The Court received notification from the warden of the Metropolitan Detention Center in Los Angeles, California, that a psychological evaluation had been completed pursuant to this Court's order. Leslie Johnson, forensic psychologist, and Lisa Hope, Chief Forensic Psychologist, issued the report stating that there is no objective information or evidence to indicate that Mr. Jowett suffers from signs or symptoms of a major mental disorder or an organic disorder that would impair his present ability to understand the nature and consequences of the court proceedings against him or his ability to properly assist in his defense. The competency report, which reflects the examiners' method of evaluation and opinion in detail and sets forth the corresponding psychological findings and recommendations, was filed in the record under seal and provided to both the defendant's attorney and the attorney for the Government. On April 21, 2014, the Court conducted a competency hearing to address the findings set forth in the psychological report. Neither party objected to the report or the examiner's findings.

B. Conclusion and Recommendation

Accordingly, based upon the opinion issued by the forensic psychological examiners and the agreement of the parties, the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge recommends that the District Court find the defendant, Zachary Joel Jowett, competent to proceed pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241.

<sup>1</sup>The Court also ordered that the defendant undergo a separate examination to determine whether he was insane at the time of the alleged offense pursuant to the defendant's notice of insanity defense. The results of that examination have been provided to the Court and both parties but are not part of the record at this time as the issue is not before the Court for determination.

C. Objections

Objections must be: (1) specific, (2) in writing, and (3) served and filed within fourteen (14) days after being served with a copy of this report. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). A party's failure to object bars that party from: (1) entitlement to de novo review by a district judge of proposed findings and recommendations, see Rodriguez v. Bowen, 857 F.2d 275, 276-77 (5th Cir. 1988), and (2) appellate review, except on grounds of plain error of unobjected-to factual findings and legal conclusions accepted by the district court, see Douglass v. United Servs. Auto. Ass'n., 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996) (en banc). The constitutional safeguards afforded by Congress and the courts require that, when a party takes advantage of his right to object to a magistrate's findings or recommendation, a district judge must exercise its nondelegable authority by considering the actual evidence and not merely by reviewing and blindly adopting the magistrate judge's report and recommendation. See Hernandez v. Estelle, 711 F.2d 619, 620 (5th Cir. 1983); United States v. Elsoffer, 644 F.2d 357, 359 (5th Cir. 1981) (per curiam).
